

THERE WILL ALWAYS BE A NEXT GENERATION OF BRITISH SPORTS STARS...

be part of their team by making a regular gift to SportsAid!

SportsAid helps the next generation of British sports stars by giving them financial support and recognition during the critical early stages of their careers – helping them to fulfil their aspirations of becoming the sporting heroes of tomorrow.

A regular gift from you could help to enable and inspire young, disabled and non-disabled athletes – making you a vital part of their team.

On average it costs a talented, young sports person £6,300 a year to progress in their chosen sport, meaning your help could really make a significant difference.

- £3 a month could help get an athlete to their next training session
- £10 a month could help purchase crucial pieces of kit such as shin guards, tennis balls or exercise tape
- £50 a month could help pay for regular physio treatment
- £84 a month could help SportsAid to provide an annual financial award of £1000 to an athlete to use towards their sports career

Join their team and be part of Great Britain's sporting success by making a regular donation to SportsAid today!
